Mr. Ell interviewed me by phone. His article followed my lead of stressing recognition of not only the AFROTC program at Leesburg High, but also that we were making the award in honor of the 60th Anniversary of the start of the Korean War.

While he also told where and when we meet, he did not include our desire to recruit new members from those more than a million

Today marks the 60th anniversary of the Korean War

LEESBURG, FL, June 25-- Jack Reynolds had just turned 19 when he answered President Harry Truman's call for American troops to help South Korea repulse invading North Korean troops. Later generations would dub this conflict "The Forgotten War," but it's hard to forget what those 58,000 U.S. troops accomplished, said local veterans.

The conflict began six decades ago today -- before dawn on June 25, 1950, as North Korean forces launched a surprise attack across the 38th parallel, the division between the two countries.

"It doesn't feel like 60 years," said Reynolds of the years that have passed since his involvement in the Forgotten War. "I was just a young guy."

Jack Reynolds, in front left, shares memorabilia he collected from his time served during the Korean War at a meeting of Lake County's Korean War Veterans chapter 169 on Wednesday, June 23, 2010, at the senior center in Leesburg.

Too young, perhaps to truly understand why it was important to wage war against the Communist forces in Soviet-occupied North Korea and their Chinese allies. But today Reynolds and others members of the Korean War Veterans of Lake County Chapter 169 beam with pride when they talk about significance of those three years of combat.

"Communism was suppressed," Tom Thiel, president of the local Korean War Veterans chapter, said of America's involvement in the conflict, which ended July 27, 1953, with an armistice agreement.

Thiel was a 21 years old when he went to Korea, serving with the U.S. Army's 24th Infantry.

"Their move was to take the south," Thiel said of the North Koreans.

"I'm proud of what we have done and what we did there, and I'm proud of South Korea today. South Korea is one of the major economies in the world. People who go there tell me it is amazing."

Reynolds believes South Korea would be a much different place had the U.S. not intervened in the war.

"Had we not went, there would be wagons and oxen as you walk up and down the streets," he said, describing life under Communist rule. "Now it looks like New York City; it's a bustling city with big seaports. None of that would have happened if we had pulled out and given it over to the North Koreans."

Reynolds received two Purple Hearts while serving with the infantry. He cherishes showing his black-and-white pictures and the memorabilia that he brought home after the war. He also treasures the fellowship he has forged with the 54 other veterans in local Korean War Veterans chapter.

"The people here, you can go and talk to any of them and they know about someplace that you've been," he said.

Every two months, he receives a national Korean War magazine in the mail, which he enjoys reading and looking at pictures of other veterans who also served in Korea.

"There are days when I see people that I know and remember from when I was there," said Reynolds, who went on to serve 32 years with the U.S. Navy after his time in Korea.

Richard Pfahler shares memories of his experience in the Korean War on Wednesday, June 23, 2010, during a meeting of Lake County's Korean War Veteran's chapter 169.

Treasurer Ted Jansen, left, and president Tom Thiel pause for a moment of silence in memory of their experiences and the friends they lost during the Korean War at a meeting of Lake County's Korean War Veterans chapter 169 on Wednesday, June 23, 2010 at the senior center in Leesburg.

"I was on the USS Saint Paul, a Navy cruiser," he said. "My first landing was in China. We evacuated the Americans when the Communists were taking over China."

Once he returned to the U.S., the Korean War began.

"I was right back over there again," he said. "I did two tours over there. We lost 39 men from our ship that were killed. Some of them were at boot camp with me. I remember the sacrifices that we made, but I think it was the right thing."

Pfahler went on to serve 26 years in the military, retiring as a lieutenant. He is now among a group of local veterans that visit schoolchildren to give them a firsthand account of serving in the military.

He believes its important for fellow Americans not to forget the 25,000 troops that are serving in Korea today.

"The troops are doing a good job," Pfahler said. "I think if they weren't there, we would have more trouble yet. I feel for them; they never know from day to day what is going to happen."

"We're on the verge right now of going back to war again with the North Koreans because he (North Korean leader Kim Jong Il) holds the world hostage by menial threats of the atomic bombs," Brown said. "During the tour that I was in, and to this day, there are soldiers dying on the DMZ from the North Koreans over there."

Brown was a Medivac helicopter pilot serving in Korea after the war, from 1974 to 1977. He met and married his wife of 34 years, Kum Ye Brown, a South Korean. Brown's passion these days is collecting Korean currency, which he plans to pass down to his grandchildren.

"I wanted them to have something of their heritage," he said.

During his military service in Korea, Brown remembers the hostility and "incident after incident" of injured South Koreans after the discovery of North Korean tunnels and their secret plans to invade the South.

"That kind of stuff was going on," Brown said. "They (North Koreans) are ruthless people. I sit back and can understand what these people went through to win that war. I have a lot of respect for them and that's the reason that I joined their organization, so that I can keep their memories going."

Brown is the only member of the post 1950s combat era who belongs to the veterans group. The group meets 2 p.m. on the fourth Wednesday of each month at Leesburg Senior Center, 1211 N. Penn St.

"We need these guys like Dwight to come aboard and keep the memory alive," said Thiel, the chapter president. "We want to get the message to those younger folks to join us. We need them because we're dying off."

Chapter Funding/Laptop Drawing

Treasurer Jansen reported that on 4/29/2010, we had $2,377 in Checking, $3,533 in a CD, and $505 set aside for our scholarship account.

On 5/23/2010 we had $1,261.52 in checking, the same amount in CD, and only $5 set aside for scholarship as we awarded $500 to Leesburg High ROTC on June 1.

The above report does not include the receipts from recent fund drives at Belleview Publix and another at the Villages.

Treasurer Jansen stated that at the start of the June meeting, he had received Laptop ticket donations of $940. A significant number of donations were received at the July meeting.

We also moved and approved the correcting of the date for the Laptop Drawing to, as it should have been, July 28, 2010, the fourth Wednesday in July.

An Acer Laptop Computer with Intel i3-330M processor has been procured at a cost of $499.99.

Council meeting, Saturday September 25, 2010, The Ocala Hilton 3600 SW 36th Ave Ocala. Registration deadline is September 1; would like more members to go; no registration fee; sit down meal is $18.

Registration form was page 8 of the May Schuttlebutt.

Meet our new Secretary, John N. "Jack" Strasser. Jack served in Korea with the 1st Cavalry, 8th Regimental Headquarters.

Jack and I went to Upper Sandusky (OH) High School together, were drafted together, took basic training together at Camp Breckenridge, flew to Camp Stoneman together, and rode together on the William Mitchell to Camp Drake. But that is where our paths separated—he went to the 1st Calv and me to the 24th.

I saw Jack once in Korea in the summer of 1951. I came across Jack's 6-by mobile electrical repair shop.

At our May meeting, Jack suggested we contact residential associations throughout Lake County to arrange for us to come to their recreation centers, and over coffee and donuts tell them about the Chapter and KWVA.

But in order to do this we need to compile a list of these residential communities and make contacts.

Would everyone who knows of such communities please send them and their Recreation Director to either Jack at 630 Misti Dr, Leesburg, FL, 34788, (352) 728-3928, mjreynolds1@comcast.net

PHOTOGRAPHER: Carol Becker
ATTENDANCE

Guests: Five: Joe Lewis, Paul Deeley, Roger Vink, Wes Makey and George Pechka. Theresa Campbell and her photographer from the Daily Commercial. Members: 18. Total: 25.

FUND RAISING (A primary effort of the June 23 meeting)

This 60th Anniv of start of the Korean War, June 25. We want to plan multiple Tell America/Fund Raising events.

Our membership was sorted by zip code and Publix store locations also researched and sorted similarly.

We planned for (6) simultaneous displays at stores in July.

Note these will be Tell America; fund raising will be an important secondary objective. Our goal will be to raise $2,500.

Two fund-raising efforts have already conducted. Jackie Gleason and Joan Bernat, with Art Canale and Harold Sievers at Publix in Belleview, netting the Chapter $360. Thanks to all.

Dwight Brown alone at Publix at The Villages. Took in $260 in tickets and $182 in cash contributions. Thank you Dwight.

Two others are planned:

Charlie White, Dick Pfahler and Ted Jansen at Publix at Palm Plaza

Tom Thiel, Dick Christie and Jack Reynolds at Publix at Loch Leaven, new store at corner of US441 and SR44 Mount Dora-Eustis

But others are needed!!!!

SERGEANT AT ARMS—Ed Pilarski

Need Color Guard members. Don Lynch joined at today's meeting.

SUNSHINE, and ASSISTANCE & AID – Harold Sievers (needs help).

Ruby Shumaker Visitation—Dick and Vi Pfahler, Carol Becker, Don Van Beck, Harold Sievers and Tom Thiel visited the funeral home.

Bill Gaston: we need to keep Bill in our thoughts and send a card.

Others? Keep us informed.

Bring food and clothing items for the Food Bank & other charities-- Dick Pfahler.

SPECIAL PRESENTATION:
Dwight Brown, Korean Money.

Dwight had a most impressive display of Korean money on two card tables. Clearly Dwight is a professional coin and currency collector, especially of Korean money. He gave a brief overview of Korea and its origins, which helped me to appreciate a good more about Korea. Briefly, it is an amalgamation of influences of China, Russia, and Japan. In 1910, the Japanese occupied Korea and began eliminating all traces of Korea as a nationality, including in its money.

After WWII, Korea became divided into Communist North and Free South at the 38th Parallel. Dwight showed many coins and paper items. What was most impressive was the value of some of the pieces (from $1,600 on up!) Dwight mostly gets these items from dealers and other collectors. He said he got into this most serious hobby to provide his children with some concrete evidence of their Korean heritage. Thank you Dwight.

who have served in Korea since then. We need them to carry on the message of the Korean War!

Mr. Ell indicated a desire to know about any activities planned for the 60th, and shortly thereafter, Ms. Theresa Campbell also of the Daily-Commercial, made arrangements to attend our June Member meeting.

While I have no idea if these two are related, I made a special effort to make Theresa aware of our desire to recruit younger members and had her interview our only member from that group, Dwight Brown.

GENERATIONS OF VALOR

We truly take a lot for granted. Forget the football "heroes" and movie "stars."

Only two defining forces have ever offered to die for us, Jesus Christ and the American Soldier.

Pass this on so that all may know the price of freedom.

From Ted Morford

Flags at Cornerstone Hospice

When Warren Sell, our Jacksonville member, was at our May meeting, he asked us to consider a project or activity related to Veterans and the Cornerstone Hospice in the Villages.

I didn't know what Warren was talking about so asked him for more information.

It would involve placing American flags at the Cornerstone Hospice in The Villages. The person to contact there is Jennifer, a social worker in charge of veterans affairs at the Hospice. Her number is 407-6309.

Warren says they obtain their flags from Flags Military in southern GA; number is 706-678-1342, ask for Brenda, a very nice lady.

I don't know if anyone would like to pursue this as a Chapter project, but wanted to provide Warren a venue for his idea and proposal.

I am aware that Charlie White took over a Ted Morford Flag project at the Villages' Memorial.

Sick Call

John Yohn. I talked to John; in response to my "How are you" question, he always says "Holding my own." But I know he continues to deal with his pain issues.

Bill Gaston of Summerfield has joined our ranks of ailing members. I talked to Zella on Tuesday and she was most concerned. Bill and Zella Gaston, 17738 SE 119th Ave Rd, Summerfield, FL 34491-8000, (352) 347-4257.

If you know of anyone ill please inform: Chaplain Harold Sievers, 352-753-4929 colsievers2@aol.com or Tom Thiel 357-3943 or kwva169@gmail.com

President's Views by Tom Thiel

June 2010

has been a good month for Chapter 169, I think.

In fact this year has been relatively good so far.

While we lost too many members coming into this year (about 10), we have added 10 to replace them. I'm sad about those we lost, but very glad over those we have gained.

Since there are many new members, perhaps I should explain the losses. First, some were lost to normal attrition; we were carrying members on our roster who really were no longer members. There were some lost to death too, I'm sorry to say.

But we flat out lost some because they could no longer just be Chapter members. They had to, as passed by the Association last summer, also maintain Association membership. A hand full chose to not meet this criteria and left.

I'm sorry to have lost all of them, but we will go on, and we will continue to grow.

But, just getting members is not an end unto itself. We must have viable and rewarding programs and activities to retain member interests.

We are not a lodge. We do not have a bar. We do not have slot machines to raise monies.

We have programs. Tell America and Education. Scholarship and Education. Charitable contributions. Memorials and Honor Guard. Our own meetings. And finally, Social activities, such as the spring picnic and the December Christmas Party with Chapter 188.

Are they viable? Sometimes I wonder. I wonder because although I am excited many times it seems not too many others are.

On another front, we have had good success with our publicity efforts, especially in the Daily Commercial, and to a lesser extent in the Orlando Sentinel's Lake Edition, and the Villages' Daily Sun.

I was especially thrilled at making the front page of the Daily-Commercial, today, June 25. Theresa Campbell wrote a fine story. And I thank all our Chapter Members for coming, for dressing up, for bringing memorabilia, and for being interviewed. Let's each of us now thank the Daily-Commercial for carrying "our story."

Making the press helps our cause; my phone still rings occasionally from that article on me in the Sentinel a couple of months ago.

So, in addition to members and programs, we also need publicity.

What else do we need?

We need energized members.

Members willing to do more than come to a meeting once a month and to soak a doughnut or one of Joan's excellent baked goodies in a cup of coffee.

Elsewhere in this newsletter I mentioned the desire to have six simultaneous Tell America/Fund Raising efforts to memorialize the 60th Anniversary of the Korean War.

We managed to get a bare minimum number of helpers for only two! Well, four I guess if we count the two recent ones we have had.

Why is it that the same few members are always the ones to do all the Chapter's work?

I see some change and that is encouraging, so I will keep on urging you.

Urging you to become involved with Tell America. With our Scholarship effort. With our Color Guard. With finding other places where we can both impact our community and perhaps in the process grow our membership.

With finding someone who will be able to take over the management of the Chapter's Membership base.

And with finding members willing to serve as Chapter Officers and Directors. This latter one is just months away so please give it more thought.

But I'm enjoying myself; thank you for a fun trip! TJT
